Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and

For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

In 3 above, if applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

For federal tax purposes, you are considered a person if you are:

- An individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States, or
- Any estate (other than a foreign estate) or trust. See Regulations sections 301.7701-6(a) and 7(a) for additional information.

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,

- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien.

Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the recipient has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments (after December 31, 2002). This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 4 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules regarding partnerships on page 1.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name" line.

Limited liability company (LLC). If you are a single-member LLC (including a foreign LLC with a domestic owner) that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Treasury regulations section 301.7701-3, enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. Enter the LLC's name on the "Business name" line. Check the appropriate box for your filing status (sole proprietor, corporation, etc.), then check the box for "Other" and enter "LLC" in the space provided.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name" line.

Note. You are requested to check the appropriate box for your status (individual/sole proprietor, corporation, etc.).

Exempt From Backup Withholding

If you are exempt, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt from backup withholding" box in the line following the business name, sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

Exempt payees. Backup withholding is not required on any payments made to the following payees:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),
 2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,
 3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,
 4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or
 5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.
- Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:
6. A corporation,
 7. A foreign central bank of issue,
 8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,
 9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,
 10. A real estate investment trust,
 11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,
 12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),
 13. A financial institution,
 14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or
 15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The chart below shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt recipients listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt recipients except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt recipients 1 through 13. Also, a person registered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 who regularly acts as a broker
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt recipients 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 ¹	Generally, exempt recipients 1 through 7 ²

¹See Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income, and its instructions.

²However, the following payments made to a corporation (including gross proceeds paid to an attorney under section 6045(f), even if the attorney is a corporation) and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees; and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-owner LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited liability company (LLC) on page 2), enter your SSN (or EIN, if you have one). If the LLC is a corporation, partnership, etc., enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.socialsecurity.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer ID Numbers under Related Topics. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting www.irs.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Writing "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, and 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). Exempt recipients, see Exempt From Backup Withholding on page 2.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

DISADVANTAGED BUSINESS ENTERPRISE/AIRPORT CONCESSIONS DISADVANTAGED BUSINESS ENTERPRISE (DBE/ACDBE) UTILIZATION

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION POLICY

It is the policy of the Department of Transportation that socially and economically Disadvantaged Business Enterprise/Airport Concessions Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE/ACDBEs), as defined at Title 49 Code of Federal Regulations, Part 23 and 26, shall have the maximum opportunity to participate in the performance of contracts financed in whole or in part with Federal funds. Consequently, the DBE/ACDBE requirements of 49 CFR, Part 23 and 26, shall apply to any agreement resulting from this procurement.

Participants in this procurement agree to ensure that DBE/ACDBEs, as defined at 49 CFR, Part 23 and 26, have the maximum opportunity to participate in the performance of contracts and subcontracts financed in whole or in part with federal funds. In this regard, the Proposers/Bidders/Qualifiers shall take all necessary and reasonable steps in accordance with 49 CFR, Part 23 and 26, and the Airport's DBE/ACDBE Program to ensure that DBE/ACDBEs have the maximum opportunity to compete for the performance of contracts. Neither the Proposers/Bidders/Qualifiers nor the selected contractor shall discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin or sex in the performance of a resulting DOT-assisted contract.

I. OVERALL GOALS

The term "disadvantaged business" means a small business concern, which is at least 51 percent owned by one or more socially and economically disadvantaged persons or, in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51 percent of the stock of which is owned by one or more socially and economically disadvantaged individuals and whose management and daily business operation are controlled by one or more of the socially and economically disadvantaged individuals who own it.

"Socially and economically disadvantaged individuals" means a citizen of the United States (or lawfully admitted permanent resident) who meets the criteria set forth in 49 C.F.R. Section 26.5. The Airport annually sets an overall DBE/ACDBE goal and triennially sets an DBE/ACDBE goal for work to be performed under Airport contracts, including construction activity procurement of common goods and services, personal service contracts, concessions and rental car contracts. While the expected percentage of certified DBE/ACDBE utilization may vary from contract to contract due to the availability of DBE/ACDBEs in any given line of work, the Airport believes that overall goals to be realistically obtainable over time with the assistance of the federal government, the business community, and DBE/ACDBE organizations.

In order to meet Federal requirements and to provide for maximum participation of certified DBE/ACDBEs, the Airport specifies a percentage of participation goals in contracts with subcontracting opportunities (the percentage may be zero).

II. CONTRACT GOALS

The Airport has specified a contract specific DBE/ACDBE goal for the work to be performed under this contract.

- A. When a DBE/ACDBE participates in a contract, you count only the value of the work actually performed by the DBE/ACDBE toward the DBE/ACDBE goals.
 - 1. Count the entire amount of that portion of a contract (or other contract not covered by Paragraph (A) (2) of this section) that is performed by DBE/ACDBEs own forces. Include the cost of supplies and materials obtained by the DBE/ACDBEs for the work of the contract, including supplies purchased or equipment leased by the DBE/ACDBEs (except supplies and equipment the DBE/ACDBEs subcontractor purchases or leases from the prime contractor or its affiliate).

2. Count the entire amount of fees or commissions charged by an DBE/ACDBE firm for providing a bona fide service, such as professional, technical, consultant, or managerial services, or for providing bonds or insurance specifically required for the performance of a DOT-assisted contract, toward DBE/ACDBE goals, provided you determine the fee to be reasonable and not excessive as compared with fees customarily allowed for similar services.
3. When a DBE/ACDBE subcontracts part of the work of its contract to another firm, the value of the subcontracted work may be counted toward DBE/ACDBE goals only if the DBE/ACDBE subcontractor is itself a DBE/ACDBE. Work that a DBE/ACDBE subcontracts to a non-DBE/ACDBE firm does not count toward DBE/ACDBE goals.
 - a) When a DBE/ACDBE performs as a participant in a joint venture, count a portion of the total dollar value of the contract equal to the distinct, clearly defined portion of the work of the contract that the DBE/ACDBE performs with its own forces toward DBE/ACDBE goals.
 - b) Count expenditures to a DBE/ACDBE contractor toward DBE/ACDBE goals only if the DBE/ACDBE is performing a commercially useful function on that contract.
4. A DBE/ACDBE performs a commercially useful function when it is responsible for execution of the work of the contract and is carrying out its responsibilities by actually performing, managing, and supervising the work involved. To perform a commercially useful function, the DBE/ACDBE must also be responsible, with respect to materials and supplies used on the contract, for negotiating price, determining quality and quantity, ordering the material, and installing (when applicable) and paying for the material itself. To determine whether a DBE/ACDBE is performing a commercially useful function, you must evaluate the amount of work subcontracted, industry practices, whether the amount the firm is to be paid under the contract is commensurate with the work it is actually performing and the DBE/ACDBE credit claimed for its performance of the work, and of the relevant factors DBE/ACDBE does not perform a commercially if its role is limited to that of an extra participant in a transaction, contract, or project through which funds are passed in order to:

DISADVANTAGED BUSINESS ENTERPRISE (DBE) FIRMS ONLY

- a) To be a regular dealer, the firm must be an established, regular business that engages, as its principal business and under its own name, in the purchase and sale or lease of the products in question.
- b) A person may be a regular dealer in such bulk items as petroleum products, steel, cement, gravel, stone, or asphalt without owning, operating, or maintaining a place of business; if the person both owns and operates distribution equipment for long-term lease agreement and not on an ad hoc or contract by contract basis.
- c) Packagers, brokers, manufacturers', representatives, or other persons who arrange or expedite transactions are not regular dealers within the meaning of this paragraph.
- d) With respect to materials or supplies purchased from a DBE which is neither a manufacturer nor a regular dealer, count the entire amount of fees or commissions charged for the delivery of materials or supplies required on a job site, toward DBE goals, provided you determine the fees to be reasonable and not excessive as compared with fees customarily allowed for similar services. Do not count any portion of the cost of the materials and supplies themselves toward DBE goals.

Sixty percent of the total dollar value will be counted in the case of a DBE/ACDBE supplier that is not a manufacturer, provided that the DBE/ACDBE supplier performs a commercially useful function in the supply process to include brokers etc in accordance with 49 CFR 26.55 Paragraph 2b.

AIRPORT CONCESSIONS DISADVANTAGED BUSINESS ENTERPRISE (ACDBE) PARTICIPATION ONLY

ACDBE firms can only be counted if they are performing a commercially useful function as outlined above. Count revenues generated to an ACDBE concessionaire only if the ACDBE is performing a commercially useful function on that contract.

DBE/ACDBE MANUFACTURER/REAL DEALER PARTICIPATION

The entire amount of fees or commissions charged by an ACDBE firm for a bona fide service will be counted provided that the fees are determined to be reasonable and not excessive as compared with fees customarily allowed for similar services. Such services may include, but are not limited to, professional, technical, consultant, legal, security systems, advertising, building cleaning and maintenance, computer programming, or managerial.

One hundred percent (100%) of the cost of goods obtained from a DBE/ACDBE manufacturer will be counted. The term manufacturer has the same meaning as in Part 26, Section 26.55(e) (1) (ii). One hundred percent (100%) of the cost of goods purchased or leased from a DBE/ACDBE regular dealer will be counted. The term "regular dealer" has the same meaning as in Part 26, Section 26.55(e) (2) (ii). Credit will be counted toward DBE/ACDBE goals for goods purchased from a DBE/ACDBE which is neither a manufacturer nor a regular dealer as follows:

Count the entire amount of fees or commissions charged for assistance in the procurement of the goods, provided that this amount is reasonable and not excessive as compared with fees customarily allowed for similar services. Do not count any portion of the cost of the goods themselves.

Count the entire amount of fees or transportation charges for the delivery of goods required for a concession, provided that this amount is reasonable and not excessive as compared with fees customarily allowed for similar services. Do not count any portion of the cost of goods themselves.

If a firm has not been certified as a DBE/ACDBE in accordance with the standards in this part, do not count the firm's participation toward DBE/ACDBE goals.

- B. Each Proposer/Bidder/Qualifier should also prepare a complete DBE/ACDBE Participation Plan that sets forth the extent of DBE/ACDBE involvement in this procurement, these materials are to be provided upon request, and will be considered in determining Proposer/Bidder/Qualifier responsibility.

5. Request for emergency addition-conditional approval to utilize a subcontractor/consultant can be submitted by completing Attachment B-9 (Emergency Addition-Conditional Approval of Subcontractor/consultant). The Contractor shall make assurances that all subcontractors listed in Attachment B-9 who are utilized towards the fulfillment of a DBE/ACDBE goal will be performing a commercially useful function as outlined in 49 CFR PART 26 and 23. If it is discovered that the DBE/ACDBE is not performing or has not performed a commercially useful function, the Prime Contractor will immediately notify the EBED Office of its findings. THE APPROVAL OF THIS FORM IS CONDITIONAL. FINAL APPROVAL WILL NOT BE GRANTED until all EBED A & B FORMS are completed & contractual agreements are signed and provided to the EBED OFFICE WITH

If the wage & hour information is not submitted, payment to the Contractor can be stopped or the project can be stopped entirely. All other provisions regarding additions of sub-contractors/consultants must be followed and applied herein.

6. The following standards shall be applied in assessing the responsibility of the DBE/ACDBE plan submitted:
- a) Whether the participation plan contains capable currently certified DBE/ACDBE firms.
 - b) Whether the firms listed in the plan are performing a commercially useful function
 - c) Whether the listed firms are sharing monetary benefit in proportion to their share of the work of the project.
 - d) Whether the plan exhibits a likelihood of goal attainment.
 - e) Whether the prime/sub relationships are firm, i.e., whether conditional subcontractors have been entered.

- D. The contractor must receive the approval of the Airport's Emerging Business Enterprise Development Office before termination, addition and or making substitution for any subcontractors listed in its DBE/ACDBE and Non-DBE/ACDBE and SBE plans.

Airport certified DBE/ACDBE entities are eligible for inclusion in a plan. Consult the DBE/ACDBE Directory at www.ohioucp.org. Also, the Airport Office of Emerging Business Enterprise Development is available for assistance in ascertaining certification status of DBE/ACDBEs. Applications for certification may be obtained at www.ohioucp.org. All applications must be made through the Ohio Unified Certification Program (UCP) Application. For all bids, firms seeking to be counted toward participation at the time of contract award must be certified prior to the bid/proposal submission date. For all proposals and statements of qualifications, all firms to be counted toward participation at the time of the contract award must be certified by the time of final contract negotiations.

- 1) The Airport will attempt to certify proposed DBE/ACDBE entities prior to bid; however it will not consider certification not completed prior to submittal of bids.
 - 2) DBE/ACDBEs seeking to perform on RFP/Q's must complete the B forms at the time of proposal/qualification submission. All B forms for RFP/Q's must be finalized and ALL DBE/ACDBES MUST BE CERTIFIED BY FINAL NEGOTIATIONS.
 - 3) Proposer/Bidder/Qualifier should not rely upon the approval of the certification applications submitted for this bid/proposal by its proposed DBE/ACDBEs due to the time it takes to review and approve an application.
 - 4) However, substitution of DBE/ACDBE entities appearing in a plan may be permitted where the Disadvantaged Business Enterprise Liaison Officer (DBELO) determines that such substitution will not result in an abuse of the DBE/ACDBE Program. The burden of demonstrating the propriety of such substitution lies with the Proposer/Bidder/Qualifier seeking such substitution. Denial of certification is final for the pending contract. Any person denied certification may appeal such decision in accordance with the provisions of 49 CFR, Part 26 Section 28.89, which is reproduced as part of the Joint Certification Application.
- E. The Proposer's/Bidder's/Qualifier's commitment to a specific goal for DBE/ACDBE utilization as detailed in its DBE/ACDBE Plan shall constitute a presumption that good faith efforts to meet the DBE/ACDBE goal by subcontracting to or undertaking to joint venture with DBE/ACDBE firms have been made. If the Proposer/Bidder/Qualifier fails to meet the goal, it will carry the burden of furnishing sufficient documentation, demonstrating its good faith efforts, by utilization.

The standard by which the Airport will determine whether the efforts made by a Proposer/Bidder/Qualifier were good faith efforts is whether such efforts could be reasonably be expected to produce sufficient DBE/ACDBE participation to meet the goals set for this procurement in reaching this decision, the Airport may consider all efforts advanced by the Proposer/Bidder/Qualifier as well as the following:

1. Did the contractor attend any scheduled pre-solicitation or pre-bid meetings to inform DBE/ACDBEs of contracting and subcontracting opportunities?
 2. Did the contractor advertise in general circulation, trade association and minority-focus media concerning the subcontracting opportunities?
 3. Did the contractor provide written notice to a reasonable number of specific DBE/ACDBE that their interest in the contract was being solicited, in sufficient time to allow the DBE/ACDBEs to participate effectively?
 4. Did the contractor/supplier follow up with the DBE/ACDBE firms interested in participating?
 5. Did the contractor/supplier select portions of work to be done by DBE/ACDBEs (including dividing contracts into economically feasible units to facilitate participation)?
 6. Did the contractor provide adequate information about plans, specifications, and/or contracting requirements?
 7. Did the contractor negotiate in good faith with interested DBE/ACDBEs, not rejecting DBE/ACDBEs as unqualified without sound reasons?
 8. Did the contractor make efforts to provide assistance to obtain bonding, lines of credit, or insurance?
 9. Did the contractor effectively use the services of available minority and female organizations, contractors' groups, state and local offices, etc., that have knowledge of available DBE/ACDBE firms or the names or organizations to locate such firms?
- F. In the event a contract is awarded as a result of this procurement, the DBE/ACDBE Participation Plan submitted by the successful Proposer/Bidder/Qualifier and the terms, conditions and requirements contained in this notice shall become an integral part of the contract, binding said Proposer/Bidder/Qualifier to full and faithful performance in accordance with said plan.
- G. Any award resulting from the procurement shall be and is conditioned upon the attainment of the aforesaid goals or the satisfactory showing of good faith efforts to attain said goals.
- H. All successful Proposers/Bidders/Qualifiers must submit all the required documents to project managers prior to EBED final written approval to proceed (i.e. fully executed contract, that includes Purchase Order, Certification Request, Signature page of the contract between successful Proposers/Bidders/Qualifiers with the City of Cleveland, City Ordinance, Board Control Resolution (all proposed DBE/ACDBEs, Non DBE/ACDBEs and SBEs should be listed), all Sub-contractual/consultant Agreements, Post Project Summary and Project Contract Summary). Affirmative Action and/or EEO-1 forms are to be submitted to the EBED Office bi-annually.
- I. During the performance of any resulting contract and for a period of up to three (3) years following completion of the contract work, the Airport may initiate reviews for compliance with the requirements of the Airport's DBE/ACDBE/SBE Program and the successful Proposer's/Bidder's/Qualifier's (hereinafter "Contractor") DBE/ACDBE Participation Plan; such reviews will require the submissions of a payment or revenue reports (Enclosure B-7A Monthly Payment Compliance Report) and weekly Prevailing Wage reports to the EBED Office or project manager and/or review of monthly statements, invoices, canceled checks, desk audits and/or onsite reviews. Where a Contractor is found by the Airport to have failed to comply with the requirements of the DBE/ACDBE Program or the Contractor's DBE/ACDBE Participation Plan, the Contractor will be required to take corrective action. If corrective action is not promptly taken by the offending Contractor, the following sanctions may be imposed (singly, in any combination and in addition to any other remedies provided by law or equity):

1. The Airport may withhold all further payments under the contract.
2. The Contractor may be ordered to stop work
3. The contract may be terminated for breach.
4. Suspension or debarment proceedings may be commenced in accordance with 49 CFR, Part 29.
5. The Director of Purchasing and Supplies may find the defaulting contractor non-responsible in respect to other solicitations for a stated period of time.
6. The relevant performance bond(s) may be enforced.
7. The contract payments may be reduced by an amount equal to that designated in the DBE/ACDBE plan for DBE/ACDBE participation.

Reviews for non-federally funded projects (i.e. construction project, professional services projects, requirement projects) will require the submissions of a payment or revenue reports (Enclosure B-7B Monthly Payment Compliance Report) and weekly Prevailing Wage reports to the EBED Office or project manager.

- J. JOINT VENTURE
(JV)
GUIDANCE

What is a Joint Venture Partner?

For the purposes of the ACDBE program, a joint venture is defined as an “association of an ACDBE firms and one or more other firms to carry out a single, for-profit business enterprise, for which the parties combined their property, capital, efforts, skills and knowledge, and in which the ACDBE is responsible for a distinct, clearly defined portion of the work the contract and whose shares in the capital contribution, control, management, risks and profits of the joint venture are commensurate with its ownership interest.” Much of the remainder of this document will be directed toward further explaining many of the components of this “joint venture” definition.

What does an “association” of an ACDBE firm and one or more other firms mean?

In accordance with the objectives of the ACDBE regulations, joint ventures are intended to have a business structure set forth in a signed written agreement that clearly and specifically defines the participation of each party in the contribution of property, capital, efforts, skills and knowledge.

Any legal structure that meets federal and state legal requirements may be used to form a joint venture provided that for the purposes of counting ACDBE participation the requirements of 49 CFR Part 23 are met. The joint venture should operate in accordance with a written agreement. Please note that any business structure that meets the Part 23 definition of “joint venture” will be considered a joint venture for purposes of counting ACDBE participation, regardless of the name attributed to the business structure in the written agreement.

Some of the important components that should be included in the written agreement are noted below:

- Identification of the participation in the Joint Venture. The JV participants must be firms, including sole proprietorships, not individuals. In addition, the ACDBE participant must be certified as an ACDBE in the type of business operated by the joint venture, and in the State where the airport is located, in order for the participation to count towards ACDBE goals.
- Identification of the single, for-profit business enterprise to be undertaken by the joint. See Section 2.3 for further explanation.
- Term of the joint venture agreement and factors effecting the term (concession contract extensions or termination, sale of interest, etc.).
- Capital to be contributed by each party (initial contributions and future needs should be addressed).
- Accounting methods and distribution of profit/losses.
- Management of the joint venture’s business, including overall management (participation on a management committee or management board) and day-to-day management responsibilities.
- Administrative matters, including joint venture office locations, recordkeeping requirements, identification of an auditor, fiscal year, addresses for notices, transfer of interests, etc.

- Dissolution, including events/conditions upon which the joint venture may be dissolved and terminated and assets distributed.

May a “single, for-profit business enterprise” have more than one contract or business location at an airport?

While a joint venture must be a single business entity, it may have more than one contract with a given airport or more than one business location at the airport. It is the joint venture as an entity, and not the individual participants in the joint venture, that should have the contractual relationship(s) with the airport. The specifics of the participation in each contract should be clearly stated in the joint venture agreement to enable the airport to separately monitor all of the elements of the joint venture entity's participation in each. The participants in the joint venture which are requesting ACDBE credit should be required to disclose any other business relationships currently in existence between or among the parties (joint ventures at other airports). In the event that other relationships exist, the airport and/or Unified Certification Program (UCP) should review the ACDBE participants' eligibility for certification, to ensure continuing independence and control of the ACDBE firm in the operation of its business.

What does “parties combine their property, capital, efforts, skills and knowledge” mean?

Each party in a joint venture should bring real and substantial value to the joint venture enterprise. The parties should each contribute both tangible and intangible assets. If property is contributed the joint venture agreement should clearly state at the outset its value; which is usually assessed based on liquidation value, replacement cost, or “value in use” methods. The parties should contribute capital commensurate with their ownership interest, knowledge and skills relative to the portion of the joint venture's business for which they are responsible, and efforts of the success of the venture. The skill set (a combination of experience, core competencies, unique talent, etc.) provided by each party should add value to the joint venture relationship that is objectively apparent. This skill set should be specifically addressed in the joint venture agreement and verified by the airport during its initial review and periodically thereafter.

What does “the ACDBE is responsible for a distinct, clearly defined portion of the work of the contract” mean?

In this context, “distinct” means separate and distinguishable from the work of the non-ACDBE. “Clearly defined” means that there is no guesswork involved in determining the nature of the work assigned to the ACDBE. In order to be considered a distinct, clearly defined portion of the work, it is necessary to fully understand exactly what the work will entail, including an estimate of the time and resource requirements for each major task. For example, if the ACDBE's portion of the work is only described as “advise about” or “participate in” a portion of the work, the work would likely not be considered distinct or clearly defined because it is not clear what work the ACDBE will accomplish. Much detail would be necessary in order to determine the portion of the work to be attributed to the ACDBE. Of course, the work of the contract also includes the role of the ACDBE in the overall management of the business (as a participant on a management committee or some other governing board) as well as participation in the day-to-day management of the business.

What does “whose shares in the capital contribution, control, management, risks and profits of the joint venture are commensurate with its ownership interest” mean?

The ACDBE's participation in each of these five areas should be proportionate to the claimed ownership.

Can a joint venture be certified as an ACDBE?

No. Joint venture entities themselves are not certified as ACDBEs. In order to count towards ACDBE participation, one or more of the joint venture participants must be a certified ACDBE. Even if the joint venture is more than 51% owned by an ACDBE firm, it is not certified as an ACDBE because, by definition, a joint venture is an association of firms not individuals. The regulation states as follows:

26.73(e) An eligible DBE firm must be owned by individuals who are socially and economically disadvantaged. Except as provided in this paragraph, a firm that is not owned by such individuals, but instead is owned by another firm—even a DBE firm—cannot be an eligible DBE.

Therefore, a joint venture cannot be certified as an ACDBE.

With regard to certification, the regulation provides for an exception to the above as follows:

26.73(e) (1) If socially and economically disadvantaged individuals own and control a firm through a parent or holding company, established for tax, capitalization or other purposes consistent with industry practice, and the parent or holding company in turn owns and controls an operating subsidiary, you may certify the subsidiary if it otherwise meets all requirements of this subpart. In this situation, the individual owners and controllers of the parent or holding company are deemed to control the subsidiary through the parent or holding company.

However, this would not apply to joint ventures since the ACDBE participant in a joint venture must be certified in order to count towards ACDBE participation in a joint venture and holding companies are not certified; only the subsidiary can be certified. Therefore, a holding company cannot be an ACDBE participant in a joint venture.

Does the ACDBE participant in a joint venture have to be certified in a specific type of work?

Yes. ACDBE firms must be certified in the type of work to be undertaken by the joint venture (ex. an ACDBE participant in a retail joint venture must be certified as an ACDBE retail operator). An ACDBE firm is required to share in the management and control of the operation.

In order to do so, the ACDBE should be capable of participating at this level. In addition, the ACDBE should have involvement in the broader areas of the operation which would enable them to gain operating experience for the purpose of competing independently for operations in the future. The implementation of joint ventures which promote participation in the provision of services not related to the overall management of the operation does not support the objectives of the program. Certified firms may request that a trade be added to their certification.

49 CFR Part 23 states as follows:

(a) Recipients must use, except as provided in this subpart, the procedures and standards of part 26, §§26.61-91 for certification of ACDBEs to participate in their concessions program. Recipients ACDBE program must incorporate the use of these standards and procedures and must provide that certification decisions for ACDBEs will be made by the Unified Certification Program (UCP) in the recipients state (see part 26, §26.81).

49 CFR Part 26 state as follows:

(n) Recipients must grant certification to a firm only for specific types of work in which the socially and economically disadvantaged owners have the ability to control the firm. To become certified in an additional type of work, the firm need demonstrate to the recipient only that it's socially and economically disadvantaged owners are able to control the firm with respect to that type of work. The recipient must not require that the firm be recertified or submit a new application for certification, but must verify the disadvantaged owner's control of the firm in the additional type of work.

Non-ACDBE joint venture participants and potential ACDBE joint venture participants should be cautious about investing capital in a project before the appropriate certification is issued by the certifying agency and the joint venture agreement is approved for counting by the airport. In the event that the potential ACDBE participant is not certified or the joint venture is not approved for counting.
