

For Immediate Release

Contact:

Jacqueline L. Mayo
Communications Manager
(216) 265-3303/(216) 857-7151

Sounds of the holiday music are in the air at CLE

Cleveland, December 7, 2009 – Holiday songs and dance will fill the air in the Cleveland Hopkins International Airport (CLE) ticket lobby beginning at 10:15 a.m. Tuesday, December 8, 2009. Over the next two weeks, several area schools will perform holiday music for travelers and visitors.

“Every year, we invite local schools to perform during the holidays for our travelers,” said Airport Director Ricky Smith. “We look forward to having students of all ages here in the airport performing. It adds to the festive mood of the season.”

The holiday entertainment will consist of six performances in the ticket lobby of the main terminal outside Security Checkpoint B. One performance will be held daily on weekdays beginning Tuesday, Dec. 8th through Thursday, Dec. 17th at various times.

Scheduled times and performances:

10:15 a.m. – 1 p.m.	Tuesday, Dec. 8 th	Our Lady of Good Counsel
11 a.m. – 12 p.m. Choir	Thursday, Dec. 10 th	Mid-Park Symphonic & Magic Show
12 – 1 p.m.	Friday, Dec. 11 th	Henry Long Fellow Choir
10 – 11 a.m.	Tuesday, Dec. 15 th	FD Roosevelt Choir
12 – 1 p.m.	Wednesday, Dec. 16 th	Lutheran West High School
10 – 11 a.m.	Thursday, Dec. 17 th	Apex Instrumental Strings