Versatile Footwear and the ‘Cure for the Common Burrito’ to Bring New Retail and Dining Options to the AIRMALL® at Cleveland Hopkins International Airport

– Crocs and Currito: Burritos Without Borders Among Newest Brands to Sign Leases –

CLEVELAND, October 27, 2009 – Travelers seeking brand name, multipurpose footwear or a unique dining option offering variations on the typical burrito can look no further than Crocs and Currito: Burritos Without Borders, which recently finalized leases to open units at the AIRMALL® at Cleveland Hopkins International Airport (CLE). Slated to open in the coming months, these units are the latest examples of the ongoing transformation of concessions at the airport:

- Crocs (730 sq. ft.), located in Concourse C, is scheduled for opening in early 2010. Crocs offers comfortable, lightweight, versatile footwear for men, women and children in a variety of styles and colors.
- Currito: Burritos Without Borders (900 sq. ft.), which will be located in the Food Court in the Main Terminal, surpasses typical burrito cuisine and wrap restaurants by serving “burritos without borders.” Rolled to order for superior quality and taste, Currito serves Mediterranean, Mexican, American and Asian burritos along with refreshing all-natural smoothies and more. The restaurant is expected to open at the AIRMALL® at CLE this winter.

“Whether it’s the latest in comfortable footwear or a tasty burrito that is a little out of the box, these units will add to the distinctive shopping and dining options already available at the AIRMALL® at CLE,” said Tina LaForte, vice president of BAA Cleveland. “A hallmark of the AIRMALL®, passengers will continue to shop and dine at ‘Regular Mall Prices...Guaranteed.’”

“Our main goal has always been to enhance the passenger experience at CLE. The AIRMALL® has done just that,” said Ricky Smith, director of Cleveland Hopkins International Airport. “With each announcement of a new brand coming to the AIRMALL® or the opening of a new retail store or restaurant, we are making good on our promise.”

The City of Cleveland forged a 10-year contract with BAA Cleveland in February 2008 to develop and manage concessions at Cleveland Hopkins International Airport (CLE). The city anticipates the AIRMALL® will double the current participation rate of local and minority-owned companies, double the number of concession jobs, and double retail sales figures during the next decade.

When complete, the AIRMALL® at CLE will occupy 76,000 square feet of retail space.
