

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Michele Dynia
 Interim Communications Manager
 216-265-6164/216-857-1857

Frontier Airlines adds 5 non-stop destinations

Airline also bringing back 4 seasonal markets

Cleveland, January 7th, 2016 – Frontier Airlines announced today that they are adding non-stop service from Cleveland Hopkins International Airport (CLE) to Philadelphia, Portland, San Francisco, Phoenix and Los Angeles starting April 14th, 2016. The airline is also returning seasonal service to Atlanta, Denver, Raleigh/Durham and Seattle.

"We are very pleased that Frontier has decided to grow again at CLE," said Interim Director Fred Szabo. "Their expansion to 14 markets including seasonal service makes them the second largest airline at CLE in terms of nonstop markets."

Including seasonal flying Frontier will offer service from CLE nonstop to Atlanta, Cancun, Denver, Ft. Myers, Las Vegas, Los Angeles, Orlando, Philadelphia, Phoenix, Portland, Raleigh/Durham, Seattle, San Francisco and Tampa.

Flights to Los Angeles and Portland will operate on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays while flights to Philadelphia and San Francisco will operate on Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays.

Fares in these new markets will be as low as $59 and provide savings of up to 70 percent.

Market	Service Starts	Industry Average Fare (1)	New Frontier Fare (2)	Intro Fare (3)	Savings Versus Industry Average	Fare with The WORKS (4)
CLE-PHL	4/15/2016	$197	$59	$39	70%	$108
CLE-LAX	4/14/2016	$227	$129	$79	43%	$188
CLE-SFO	4/15/2016	$251	$129	$79	49%	$188
CLE-PDX	4/14/2016	$256	$129	$79	50%	$188